Rules for the purchase of food donations from WürmtalTisch

1. The future customer must present a valid residence permit and a support commitment, comparable to Hartz 4 (This must be issued by a letter of the responsible district office or a job center).

2. The organization of the WürmtalTisch collects the following data:

- Name, first name
- E-mail address
- Citizenship
- Organization of support with expiration date
- Location of residence in the Würm Valley
- Number of adults
- Number of children

The organization creates an electronic ID card from this information, additionally with a photo of the client, an internal group affiliation number and an organization number. This ID card is sent to the customer as a QR code to their email address.

3. On each subscription day, this QR code is scanned from his cell phone or from a paper ID card (if the customer does not have a cell phone).

When a validity expires, the entitlement to receive food expires.

4. The weekly distribution of food is done in groups. Which group starts in the current week can be seen on a notice board and on the Internet (info@wuermtaltisch.de). The group start shifts weekly for equity reasons.

5. the distribution starts at 11:00. in order to avoid long waiting times, the customer can come later according to his group call of the current week. The turnaround time of a group is about 10-15 minutes.

6. according to the number of family members, reference tote bags are issued. Each adult will receive a large tote bag and each child will receive a small tote bag. An additional large tote bag will be issued for 3 children or more. The registration number and the number of adults/children will be noted on the bags for the convenience of volunteers.

The purpose of the uniform bags is to provide some equal treatment in obtaining food. When a bag is full, no more may be obtained. Bags must be brought back each time they are drawn.
